

ACT has introduced dielectric antennas to their product portfolio

Advanced Crystal Technology released a new range of dielectric antennas suitable for GPS, WLAN and Bluetooth applications. The antenna range initially launched with frequency variations of 1575.42MHz and 2338 MHz.

Key Features:

- Products are competitively priced
- Customers have a choice of compact footprints
- ACT offers the flexibility to characterize antennas to specific applications

Datasheets and additional information can be found on <http://www.actcrystals.com>